

Planning Your Presentation

Introductory Section

Select a layout for your introductory slides.

Plan your title slide below.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for planning the title slide.

Plan your introductory slide or slides below.

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for planning an introductory slide.A second large, empty rectangular box with a black border, identical to the one above, intended for planning an introductory slide.

Body Section

Select a layout for your body slides.

Plan your first claim and supporting evidence below. Don't forget to document your sources accurately.

Wrap up your first claim on this slide if necessary.

Body Section Continued

Select a layout for your body slides.

Plan your second claim and supporting evidence below. Don't forget to document your sources accurately.

Wrap up your second claim on this slide if necessary.

Body Section Continued

Select a layout for your body slides.

Plan your third claim and supporting evidence below. Don't forget to document your sources accurately.

Wrap up your third claim on this slide if necessary.

Body Section Continued

Select a layout for your body slides.

Plan your fourth (optional) claim and supporting evidence below. Don't forget to document your sources accurately.

Wrap up your fourth claim on this slide if necessary.

Counterclaim Section

Select a layout for your counterclaim slides.

Plan your first counterclaim and refutation below.

Don't forget to document your sources accurately.

Wrap up your first counterclaim on this slide if necessary.

Counterclaim Section

Select a layout for your counterclaim slides.

Plan your second counterclaim and refutation below. Don't forget to document your sources accurately.

Wrap up your second counterclaim on this slide if necessary.

Conclusion and Works Cited Section

Select a layout for your conclusion slide and works cited.

Plan your conclusion below.

Plan your works cited slide below.