

Sensory Language

Imagine a perfect summer day. It is early summer with a comfortable mix of temperature and weather. List all the details of that perfect day on the chart below. Use images that appeal to the different senses.

Sight
Taste
Hearing
Smell
Touch

Write a general statement about the overall feeling of this day.

Now think about a person you care about. How are the day and the person alike? How are they different?
