Socratic Circle Preparation

Answer the following questions using at least two specific pieces of textual evidence to support your claims. References to paragraph numbers are required.

	pan wanted to become a scientist?
are different fro
are different fro	the description of the Aurora Borealis, as well as the sentences in that paragrap m the other examples in the paragraph. Why are those differences important to bstacles Hirs

volain why t	the evample	of Maria Co	urio offors ('na camfart'	' to Hirchho	ra's mothor	2
xplain why t	the example	of Marie Cu	urie offers '	'no comfort'	' to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?
xplain why t	the example	of Marie Cu	urie offers '	'no comfort'	to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?
xplain why	the example	of Marie Cu	urie offers '	'no comfort'	' to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?
xplain why	the example	of Marie Cu	urie offers '	'no comfort'	' to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?
xplain why	the example	of Marie Cu	urie offers '	'no comfort'	' to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?
xplain why	the example	of Marie Cu	urie offers '	'no comfort'	' to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?
xplain why	the example	of Marie Co	urie offers '	'no comfort'	' to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?
xplain why	the example	of Marie Cu	urie offers '	'no comfort'	' to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?
xplain why	the example	of Marie Cı	urie offers '	'no comfort'	' to Hirshbe	rg's mother	?

5. Both Joan and her brother are described as "destined" to be scientists. Review the text and write down evidence that could be included in an essay that would discuss whether or not their experiences as they travelled to their destiny were similar or different?

Joan	Richard
Differences	Differences
Similarities	Similarities

	Your own thoughts and questions about this passage.
-
_
-
-
-
-	